

Jeff Stalnaker

5109 Bluefield Rd. Knoxville, TN 37921

(865) 919-8106

jeff.stalnaker@gmail.com

Summary

Results focused, team - oriented Lead Software Developer with diverse experience and a winning attitude. Proven ability to deliver high quality, state of the art applications under pressure and on a deadline. Leadership, interpersonal, and communication skills needed to motivate a team to success and build strong, lasting relationships with clients.

Technical Skills

ASP.NET, .NET 2.0, Visual Basic, C#, XML, HTML, Javascript, AJAX, T-SQL, PHP, ASP, Web Services, Windows Services, ASP.NET MVC, ADO.NET Entity Framework

Professional Experience

KBX Group Inc. - Knoxville, TN

2006 – 2009

Software Developer III

- Designed, developed, and maintained an enterprise level eCommerce platform and supporting applications with a team of up to 8 developers
- Designed and developed social network sites to support local communities
- Developed web services API for integration with external third party applications
- Lead development efforts on many high impact, high visibility projects
- Interfaced with clients and third parties to gather requirements, assess client needs, and design inter-operable solutions to complex problems
- Assisted management with the development and implementation of software development, source control, and quality assurance strategies

XM Satellite Radio – Washington, DC

2005 – 2006

Software Developer (Contract)

- Developed and maintained eCommerce web sites and related applications
- Provided daily, on call support for escalated issues
- Worked with various client representatives to design solutions to problems and address business needs

Metron North America – Knoxville, TN

2004 – 2005

Programmer

- Developed various web applications for a diverse client base
- Member of the eStore Core Development Team to develop an eCommerce platform from the ground up

- Responsible for developing all order processing modules including credit card processing and inventory management sub-systems
- Promoted from IT Support Technician after 4 months with the company

9 Development – Knoxville, TN

2003 – 2004

Technical Director / Lead Developer

- Founded the company with 2 other individuals
- Oversaw all technical aspects of developing various web applications for clients
- Lead development team in developing, testing, and delivering applications
- Designed and maintained internal web development / test environments

Phillips Consumer Electronics – Knoxville, TN

2003 – 2004

Software Testing Engineer (Contract)

- Executed structured test cases on embedded systems for pre-production HDTV products
- Developed and implemented new testing scenarios, test cases, and methods

Education

East Tennessee State University

2004 – 2008

Bachelor of Applied Science – Professional Studies Major, Information Technology Focus

- Coursework including: Advanced computer programming, Data structures, Public sector administration, Business communications
- Tennessee Board of Regents Online Degree Program student

Pellissippi State Technical Community College

2000 – 2003

Associates of Applied Science – Professional Studies Major, Information Technology Focus

- Coursework including: various programming languages, IT management, Web design and programming, Network administration
- Tennessee Board of Regents Online Degree Program student